

Nominated By Prof. Tsung-Min Hung

Seconded By Prof. Gangyan Si

FOR MEMBER AT LARGE

Dr. Yu-Kai Chang received his Ph.D. at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG), USA. He is a Dean and Full Professor in the Graduate Institute of Athletics and Coaching Science at National Taiwan Sport University. Dr. Chang serves a MC member of the Society for Sport and Exercise Psychology of Taiwan. Dr. Chang's personal research emphasizes "exercise and mental health", in particular, cognitive functions, as understood from a cognitive neuroscience approach. He has over 130 domestic and international publications (book chapters and journal articles) and has translated five international textbooks into Chinese in order to promote sport science knowledge to the Chinese community. Dr. Chang has been an active server for the academic society and is currently an associate editor of the Journal of Sport and Health Science, a section editor of the International Journal of Sport and Exercise Psychology (IJSEP), and an editorial board member of the Journal of Sport and Exercise Psychology. Dr. Chang has received several honorary titles, including the 2009 "Outstanding Dissertation Award" at the UNCG; the 2012 "Chinese Young Scholar Award" of the IJSEP Chinese Section; the 2013 "Developing Scholar Award of the International Society of Sport Psychology", and the 2014 "Early Career Distinguished Scholars Award", from the North American Society for Psychology of Sport and Physical Activity. Dr. Chang passionately pursues and teaches the Chinese Martial Arts, and has received many medals in domestic and international martial arts competition events.