

International Society of Sport Psychology Registry (ISSP-R)
ISSP-R Supervisor (Emerging Route)

1. Curriculum Vitae

- ⇒ 1.1. You need to supply a comprehensive curriculum vitae (maximum 8 pages).
 - ⇒ the chronology of your educational formal experience and degrees,
 - ⇒ further professional training deemed suitable in relation to supervision,
 - ⇒ a listing of continuing educational exposures in the domain of supervision
 - ⇒ dates and names of employers where you performed supervisory roles in applied sport psychology or other relevant clinical, organizational, or industrial contexts (if applicable)

Submit with your portfolio.

2. Application letter

- ⇒ 2.1. the application letter describing how your supervisory status will contribute to enhancing sport psychology practice in your local/national or international community.

Application letter (word limit 300)

3. Certificate of Completion of the ISSP Supervision Module

⇒ 3.1. Certificate of Completion of the ISSP Supervision Module

Submit with your portfolio.

4. Supervisor's Practice Statement

⇒ 4.1. You will need to supply your Supervisor's Practice Statement (between 800-1000 words).

The Supervisor's Practice Statement should include (but is not limited to):

- your philosophy of supervision.
- your theoretical orientation/model.
- your process of supervision (e.g., providing information, feedback delivery, communication, modelling, and fostering autonomy/independence).
- your plans for continued education.

This should be written in English or another language that is compatible with the composition of the ISSP-R Assessor Committee [please, inquire before submitting your application].

Supervisor's Practice Statement (minimum 800 words [limit 1000])

5. Active ISSP-R status:

Submit with your portfolio.

6. Or receive an external qualification deemed as its equivalent by the Accreditation Committee

⇒ Provide evidence of certification (incl. a substantial accumulation of professional practice experience (contact the Accreditation Committee before filing this application)).

7. Continue Education Completion Document completed.

⇒ For each CE activity the candidate must indicate the title of the activity, the organization offering the specific activity and the date when the activity was completed.

➤ When possible, candidates must attach also Certificates of Completion

⇒ If the CE activities are offered by organizations other than ISSP, the candidate will need to provide:

➤ the name of the organization delivering the activity.

➤ the number of credits the organization offered for each specific activity.

➤ Any available information associated with the event (e.g., name of instructor, qualifications of the instructor, link to the event, brief description of the event, etc).

8. Agreement to support ISSP mission and to ISSP ethical guidelines must be signed.

Submit with your portfolio.